INTRODUCTION

The Calvin Morgan Family Papers consists of items relating to the Calvin Morgan family of St. Louis County, Missouri, and Knox and Maury County, Tennessee. The Calvin Morgan Family Papers were purchased through C.L. Hooberry, Nashville, Tennessee. The collection occupies 2.10 cubic feet of shelf space and numbers approximately 3,000 items.

Single photocopies of unpublished writings in the Calvin Morgan Family Papers may be made for purposes of scholarly research.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The Calvin Morgan Papers are centered around the Calvin Morgan family of St. Louis County, Missouri, and Knox and Maury County, Tennessee. The collection consists of account books, accounts, a bond, certificates, charter of incorporation, correspondence, financial documents, land records, legal documents, a list, minutes, a newspaper clipping, printed materials, subject files, and wills.

Calvin Morgan Sr., who lived in Knox County, Tennessee, owned property across the state of Tennessee and Missouri. Many of the properties were rented, while some properties were held for resale. Mr. Morgan appointed Calvin M. Christy to serve as manager for his properties located in Missouri. The majority of this collection consists of items relating to the property held by Calvin Morgan Sr.

Calvin Morgan Jr. lived in Maury County, Tennessee where after the death of his father, he took over the management and ownership of several of the Tennessee properties. Most of the Missouri properties were sold, the proceeds being placed with other funds and distributed through the estate of Calvin Morgan Sr.

The Calvin Morgan Family Papers were processed in the most logical way possible to aid the researcher. The collection was found in no defined order, so the processor has tried to create an order that will be beneficial to the researcher.
